

2023 Drainage School

Speaker Biography

Representative Michael Aylesworth

District 11

Representative Michael Aylesworth is a native of the Hebron area, raised on family farm on the east side of Boone Twp., Porter County. Mr. Aylesworth attended St Joseph College in Rensselaer and Indiana University – graduating in 1966. He later attended Graduate School at Valparaiso University and received a master’s degree in 1989.

Mr. Aylesworth served two terms as Porter County Commissioner and one term as Porter County Councilman. He served 20 years as the Porter County Republican Party Chairman and received a Sagamore of the Wabash Award from Governor Robert Orr in 1984.

He also served 5 years as Statewide President of the Indiana Corn Growers Association from 1998 to 2002. From 2005 to 2014 he served as Director of the Northern Regional District Office of the Indiana Department of Environmental Management (which is Indiana’s EPA) in South Bend, IN.

Mr. Aylesworth was Elected Indiana State Representative in 2014 and currently serves in the Indiana Legislature as Chair of the House Agricultural Committee.

He is married to Dolores Haberlin, and they have three grown sons and six granddaughters and two grandsons.

