

Discussion Meet FAQ's

Q: Where will the Discussion Meet take place?

A: The 2023-24 Competition will take place December 14-16 in Fort Wayne at the annual Indiana Farm Bureau State Convention in December.

Q: What is the preferred dress for competitors?

A: We would ask that all competitors dress in business professional wear for all rounds of the Discussion Meet competition.

Q: Who will be allowed in the rooms?

A: Anyone attending the Indiana Farm Bureau State Convention is eligible to watch each round of competition. Names of the competitors will be displayed outside of each room before each round.

Q: Will the contestants receive feedback from the judges?

A: Yes! We have created a survey card for judges to complete for each competitor they evaluate in each round. This feedback will be compiled and distributed following each round of the event.

Q: How will the questions for Round One and Two be announced?

A: The questions will be announced at the competitors' and judges' orientation on Thursday, December 14th.

Q: Are props or visual aids allowed?

A: No props or visuals are allowed in any of the rounds.
